

ITINERARY

DAY 1

Delhi

Welcome to your 'Golden Triangle Special' Tour. On arrival, at Delhi Airport/Station, you will met and greeted by our representative. Later, proceed to your pre-booked hotel. In the evening we make a visit to Chandni Chowk to explore local markets. The rest of the evening is at leisure for Independent activities. Overnight stay in Delhi.

DAY 2

Delhi

In the morning, your sightseeing begins. You'll visit the walled city of Old Delhi, where every street is buzzing with activity. The influence of the Mughals, who once ruled from the ramparts of the Red Fort, can be seen extensively. First, you'll visit Jama Masjid—the largest mosque in India, built in the 17th century. Later, you'll drive past the New Delhi area to visit Raj Ghat, India Gate, Rashtrapati Bhawan (Presidential Palace), the Parliament House, and other colonial buildings. The early 20th-century work of Edwin Lutyens, a British architect, prominently features in the colonial districts.

Finally, visit the famous Qutub Minar and Humayun's Tomb, a marvelous example of Persian-inspired Mughal architecture.

In the evening explore the local markets of Delhi. Overnight stay in Delhi.

DAY 3

Agra

After Breakfast, proceed towards Agra to witness the architectural wonder of the golden age of the Mughals. Upon arrival, we visit the Agra Fort—a blend of Hindu and Mughal architecture—originally built by the Rajputs and renovated from time to time by different Mughal emperors with red sandstone, bricks, and beautiful marble from Makarana.

Later visit the Iconic Taj Mahal, a symbol of eternal love that stands on the southern bank of the Yamuna River. It was built by the fifth Mughal Emperor, Shah Jahan, in memory of his beloved wife, Mumtaz Mahal, who died in the 16th century. The charisma of the Taj Mahal never fails to impress, given its beautiful symmetry and white marble inlays.

Imp notes: The Taj Mahal remains closed on Fridays.

Spend the evening visiting the bazaars, where descendants of the artisans who worked on the Taj continue to perfect their trade of marble craftsmanship. Overnight stay in Agra.

DAY 4

Jaipur

After Breakfast, proceed to Jaipur, the colorful capital of Rajasthan known as the "Pink City." En route, we will visit Fatehpur Sikri, a grand, deserted, Mughal royal city. The impressive and well-preserved citadel served as Akbar's political capital for 14 years until he abandoned it in 1585 following a drought.

We will end the day by exploring the colorful evening markets and handicraft items. Overnight stay in Jaipur.

DAY 5

Jaipur

This morning you will be driven just outside Jaipur city to visit the Amer fort a former capital of the Jaipur Empire, and enjoy an Elephant ride / Jeep Ride (On Own). En route to Amber you will stop at the Hawa Mahal. Later you will visit the City palace, and walk across to the Jantar Mantar an astronomical observatory built in the 17th century. The rest of the evening is at leisure for shopping and individual activities. Overnight at Jaipur Hotel.

DAY 6
